

■ Court decision

NDP: help the autistic

Dear Editor:

The BC Supreme Court ruled that the NDP government violated the Charter of Rights and Freedoms by its failure to provide effective treatment for autistic children. Now the NDP will appeal the decision.

Cancel the appeal!

Don't waste taxpayers' money on the government's favourite lawyers. It's sick for the NDP government to deny treatment to autistic children. The treatment is expensive, but so were the fast ferries.

Dorothy Olsen
Aldergrove